02 — MEDIUM BIO

Biography

DDAY first stood out in the studio. His Afro House reworks put him on the radar of the house scene, and of venues looking for a sound with real character.

Behind the decks, he reads a crowd before he plays it and moves between styles without losing the thread. No two sets are alike, because no two rooms are.

His rule is simple: he plays only where excellence is the standard, and prepares each date with the people who host it.

03 — IDENTITY

The sound, the presence, the range

SOUND

Organic grooves, modern edge

Warm percussion and rolling basslines, with melodic indie dance touches when the night calls for it.

PRESENCE

Calm, precise, in control

Understated in the booth, fully focused on the floor. The music does the talking.

RANGE

Built to adapt

Warm-up, peak time or closing: he takes whichever slot the night needs.
